NO CHANCES OF ESCAPE TAKEN

Heavily shackled and in charge of E. J. Warren, Charles Nafzinger and Charles Musgrove, deputies of the sheriff's office, nine prisoners were taken to the state penitentiary at Florence yesterday to serve terms ranging from one to twelve years.

Among the criminals taken to prison were John Collins and Stacy Ammons, head-up men and believed to have been implicated in the attempted jail break a few nights ago. Collins was given from 7 to 12 years and Ammons from 10 to 19 years.

A. H. Ritter, a grand larceny prisoner was among those sent over. He was given from 2 to 3 years.

Dionicio Belerio, 2 to 5 years for aggravated assault; Jessie Ghant 2 to 5 years for forgery; Frederico Servantes 1 to 2 years for burglary; Louis Capais, 3 to 7 years for grand larceny; Eusebio Zugardos, 1 to 2 years for grand larceny and Felix Morris, 1 to 2 years for grand larceny were the other prisoners sent to Florence at this time.

Columbia Records

For October Are Here

In this month's list are some of the best records ever put out by the Columbia people.

The country is keeping time to the many popular war songs such as: "Laddie Boy," "Good-Bye, Broadway; Hello, France," "I Don't Know Where I'm Going but I'm on My Way," "I'll Come Sailing Back to You," "When Johnny Marches Away," and others that are "put over" with spirit, on this month's Columbia Records.
